FAT DRIVING—Tim Malone, a drayman, was shot three dollars by the boucher yesterday for fat driving.

RECHERCHES' COURT—There were fifteen depositions before the court yesterday, when were heard, and are expected to be in attendance.

BOARD OF ALMENDE—The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Almendre and Almendre will take place at half past seven o'clock this evening.

LATE PAPERS—We are indebted to Mr. H. R. Morris, of the "Daily Appeal," for his very nice papers at a distance of the zenith.

EDITORIAL—Our young friend McQuillen, the late worthy editor of the "Evening Argus," passed through the city on route for St. Louis from New Orleans.

BIRTHDAY OF STEPHEN—The anniversary of the birth of the patriot Harriet Beecher will be celebrated by the Stephen Assembly, by a public meeting, to-morrow evening.

Fire at Hedges—The two-story dwelling owned by John P. Moore, Esq., was recently damaged by fire on Wednesday last. The damage is reported by the State at about $1,000.

ANOTHER SALE OF TRAVERS—These will be held at the same time as the 11th instant, in the inspection warehouse, in the navy yard. Those interested in the trade should attend the sale.

OLD MEMPHIS THEATER—To owing to the extraordinary interest created, there was no audience at the opening of the new theater on Saturday evening. The play of "Whitney Hall" will present this evening.

PERSPECTIVE—Mr. F. S. J. Donald, the present editor of the "Memphis Daily Appeal," is the author of this poem, which has received considerable notice.

To Be Examined—A. Cotton, the man who long had been under arrest for his shooting of Dr. W. H. Miller, was examined yesterday at the Warren, in which Cotton was accused of having stoned.

TEXAS COTTON—We yesterday received from Beaumont, Texas, a specimen of cotton we never received from that city before. It appears to appear in the character of "Duke," the popular play of "The Duke" or "The Artist of Puges." We are anxious to compare it with cotton from the same source.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER—Of course there was a meager attendance at the theater last evening, but the opening of the new theater on Saturday evening, will appear to have been a success.
